

THE HERCULANUM AND OPHIR.

The New Mining Companies Incorporated.—Both Own Valuable Properties.

Two new mining companies were yesterday added to the long list of those already incorporated in our state within the past few months. One bears the name of the segregated Motor Gold Mining and Milling company, with a capital stock of $2,000,000, which is fifteen thousand shares of the par value of $100 each.

On the same day G. T. Davis, J. C. Taylor, H. L. Dryer and J. F. Vining, all men born about 1850—each with 20,000 acres of land—each with $100,000 and $20,000, respectively, organized a working capital. The officers are G. T. Davis, president; J. H. Taylor, vice-president; J. C. Taylor, treasurer; and H. L. Dryer, secretary.

The new companies joined to the company organized in Camp Floyd mining district, and owners of the Four Hills No. 12, 13 & 4.

THE GOLDEN COMPANY.
The Golden Consolidated Mining company of Utah is the other concern which has its offices of incorporation yesterday. Its properties are located in Mineral county, Nevada, and are known as the Opal and Pine Green mines, but which are now being developed under the name of the Golden. The company intends to erect a mill on the properties during the coming spring, which can be run with profit owing to the unlimited water supply. The official name is G. C. P. Co., with G. C. P. as president, A. M. McLean, A. G. Day, C. H. Wilcox and David Westwood as trustees.

NEW WARD IN DAVIS STAKE.
CENTREVILLE, Utah, Dec. 9.—On Sunday, Dec. 10, 1895, the presidency of Davis Stake organized a new ward, dividing the South Helper ward into two wards by a line running east and west, near the center of the old ward, that part lying to the north of the dividing line becoming the new South Helper ward, with Andrew C. Christensen as bishop, George Parker as his first and Orlando Hadfield as second counselor; that part lying to the south of the dividing line to be called the Hurricane ward. David C. Clark, Isaac J. Walker, G. W. Cook, and James T. Walker as his second counselor; Bishop Cook was Bishop of the South Helper ward, before it was divided. The above named brethren were ordained and set apart in their respective offices by Pres. G. C. P. Co., on Sunday, Dec. 10.

JOHN J. SMITH, Stake Clerk.

DAVIS STAKE CONFERENCE.
The quarterly conference of Davis Stake was held at Kayville on Saturday and Sunday, December 7th and 8th, 1895. On Saturday there were present on the stand, President Gen. Q. Cannon, of the First Presidency of the Church, Elder A. H. Cannon, of the Two Rock Apostles, the presidency of the Stake, High Councilors and Bishops of wards.

Saturday, 10 a.m.—After the opening exercises the following brethren gave a brief report of their wards: Bishop J. C. Taylor, of Salt Lake; Bishop Wm. C. Clark, of Ogden; Bishop Wm. C. Clark, of Salt Lake; Bishop J. W. Hinckley, of Provo; Bishop J. M. Scott, of Farmington; Bishop F. Harton, of Kayville; Cannon; John D. Johnson, of Layton; Bishop D. J. Layton, of Layton; Bishop F. Harton, of Salt Lake; Bishop David Cook, of South Helper. All gave very favorable reports of the wards over whom they preside, organizations and associations doing well, especially the Young Men's and Young Women's Societies. President John W. Hinckley reported the Stake. Speaking of the labor of himself and counsellors among the people, he said from his own knowledge he believed the bishops had given true reports.

President Q. Cannon spoke for a few minutes on the influence of the Holy Spirit and His work in the affairs of God.

Saturday, 2 p.m.—After the usual exercises Elder John W. Hinckley spoke on the subject of "The Work of God and the Kingdom of Heaven."

President Gen. Q. Cannon addressed the congregation, giving timely counsel and instructions to his brethren, pointing out the path that they must pursue to be successful in their labors that we may expect His blessing if we yield to the temptations of Satan.

Elder A. H. Cannon spoke against the spirit of faultfinding and speaking against the Lord's anointed, fighting against the priesthood, would kill us.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Cannon spoke on the spirit of faultfinding and speaking against the Lord's anointed, fighting against the priesthood, would kill us.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening. He was a member of the company that reached our city on Sunday morning in charge of Elder George, who remained to Ogden during Sunday and arrived here in the evening.

Elder Hinckley left Salt Lake for the mission field November 1, 1893, and has spent all his time laboring in the Leeds conference, England. He represents a prosperous mission and the majority of the men of health while absent. The present number of the members of the church are about 1,000, and a great number of the houses in town are presenting themselves for baptism. The elders labor there receive very hospitable treatment, and feel greatly encouraged in the work in which they are engaged.

GRIFFIN HOSPITAL.

Eliza Murray Hospital, of Utah Grand County, offices at Kaysville, opened yesterday, and reported 15 patients in the hospital, 10 in the ward, 5 in the infirmary and 10 in the dispensary. The doctor of the day, Dr. J. M. Taylor, has 300 patients and 200 cases, and the hospital expenses are a working capital. The officers are Dr. F. D. Hinckley, president; J. H. Taylor, vice-president; J. C. Taylor, treasurer; and H. L. Dryer, secretary.

The new hospital is located in the camp of Camp Floyd mining district, and owners of the Four Hills Nos. 12, 13 & 4.

THE GOLDEN COMPANY.
The Golden Consolidated Mining company of Utah is the other concern which has its offices of incorporation yesterday. Its properties are located in Mineral county, Nevada, and are known as the Opal and Pine Green mines, but which are now being developed under the name of the Golden. The company intends to erect a mill on the properties during the coming spring, which can be run with profit owing to the unlimited water supply. The official name is G. C. P. Co., with G. C. P. as president, A. M. McLean, A. G. Day, C. H. Wilcox and David Westwood as trustees.

NEW WARD IN DAVIS STAKE.
CENTREVILLE, Utah, Dec. 9.—On Sunday, Dec. 10, 1895, the presidency of Davis Stake organized a new ward, dividing the South Helper ward into two wards by a line running east and west, near the center of the old ward, that part lying to the north of the dividing line becoming the new South Helper ward, with Andrew C. Christensen as bishop, George Parker as his first and Orlando Hadfield as second counselor; that part lying to the south of the dividing line to be called the Hurricane ward. David C. Clark, Isaac J. Walker, G. W. Cook, and James T. Walker as his second counselor; Bishop Cook was Bishop of the South Helper ward, before it was divided. The above named brethren were ordained and set apart in their respective offices by Pres. G. C. P. Co., on Sunday, Dec. 10.

JOHN J. SMITH, Stake Clerk.

DAVIS STAKE CONFERENCE.
The quarterly conference of Davis Stake was held at Kayville on Saturday and Sunday, December 7th and 8th, 1895. On Saturday there were present on the stand, President Gen. Q. Cannon, of the First Presidency of the Church, Elder A. H. Cannon, of the Two Rock Apostles, the presidency of the Stake, High Councilors and Bishops of wards.

Saturday, 10 a.m.—After the opening exercises the following brethren gave a brief report of their wards: Bishop J. C. Taylor, of Salt Lake; Bishop Wm. C. Clark, of Ogden; Bishop Wm. C. Clark, of Salt Lake; Bishop J. W. Hinckley, of Provo; Bishop J. M. Scott, of Farmington; Bishop F. Harton, of Kayville; Cannon; John D. Johnson, of Layton; Bishop D. J. Layton, of Layton; Bishop F. Harton, of Salt Lake; Bishop David Cook, of South Helper. All gave very favorable reports of the wards over whom they preside, organizations and associations doing well, especially the Young Men's and Young Women's Societies. President John W. Hinckley reported the Stake. Speaking of the labor of himself and counsellors among the people, he said from his own knowledge he believed the bishops had given true reports.

President Q. Cannon spoke for a few minutes on the influence of the Holy Spirit and His work in the affairs of God.

Saturday, 2 p.m.—After the usual exercises Elder John W. Hinckley spoke on the subject of "The Work of God and the Kingdom of Heaven."

President Gen. Q. Cannon addressed the congregation, giving timely counsel and instructions to his brethren, pointing out the path that they must pursue to be successful in their labors that we may expect His blessing if we yield to the temptations of Satan.

Elder A. H. Cannon spoke against the spirit of faultfinding and speaking against the Lord's anointed, fighting against the priesthood, would kill us.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening. He was a member of the company that reached our city on Sunday morning in charge of Elder George, who remained to Ogden during Sunday and arrived here in the evening.

Elder Hinckley left Salt Lake for the

mission field November 1, 1893, and has spent all his time laboring in the Leeds conference, England. He represents a prosperous mission and the majority of the men of health while absent. The present number of the members of the church are about 1,000, and a great number of the houses in town are presenting themselves for baptism. The elders labor there receive very hospitable treatment, and feel greatly encouraged in the work in which they are engaged.

ELIZA MURRAY HOSPITAL.

Eliza Murray Hospital, of Utah Grand County, offices at Kaysville, opened yesterday, and reported 15 patients in the hospital, 10 in the ward, 5 in the infirmary and 10 in the dispensary. The doctor of the day, Dr. J. M. Taylor, has 300 patients and 200 cases, and the hospital expenses are a working capital.

The new hospital is located in the camp of Camp Floyd mining district, and owners of the Four Hills Nos. 12, 13 & 4.

THE GOLDEN COMPANY.
The Golden Consolidated Mining company of Utah is the other concern which has its offices of incorporation yesterday. Its properties are located in Mineral county, Nevada, and are known as the Opal and Pine Green mines, but which are now being developed under the name of the Golden. The company intends to erect a mill on the properties during the coming spring, which can be run with profit owing to the unlimited water supply. The official name is G. C. P. Co., with G. C. P. as president, A. M. McLean, A. G. Day, C. H. Wilcox and David Westwood as trustees.

NEW WARD IN DAVIS STAKE.
CENTREVILLE, Utah, Dec. 9.—On Sunday, Dec. 10, 1895, the presidency of Davis Stake organized a new ward, dividing the South Helper ward into two wards by a line running east and west, near the center of the old ward, that part lying to the north of the dividing line becoming the new South Helper ward, with Andrew C. Christensen as bishop, George Parker as his first and Orlando Hadfield as second counselor; that part lying to the south of the dividing line to be called the Hurricane ward. David C. Clark, Isaac J. Walker, G. W. Cook, and James T. Walker as his second counselor; Bishop Cook was Bishop of the South Helper ward, before it was divided. The above named brethren were ordained and set apart in their respective offices by Pres. G. C. P. Co., on Sunday, Dec. 10.

JOHN J. SMITH, Stake Clerk.

DAVIS STAKE CONFERENCE.
The quarterly conference of Davis Stake was held at Kayville on Saturday and Sunday, December 7th and 8th, 1895. On Saturday there were present on the stand, President Gen. Q. Cannon, of the First Presidency of the Church, Elder A. H. Cannon, of the Two Rock Apostles, the presidency of the Stake, High Councilors and Bishops of wards.

Saturday, 10 a.m.—After the opening exercises the following brethren gave a brief report of their wards: Bishop J. C. Taylor, of Salt Lake; Bishop Wm. C. Clark, of Ogden; Bishop Wm. C. Clark, of Salt Lake; Bishop J. W. Hinckley, of Provo; Bishop J. M. Scott, of Farmington; Bishop F. Harton, of Kayville; Cannon; John D. Johnson, of Layton; Bishop D. J. Layton, of Layton; Bishop F. Harton, of Salt Lake; Bishop David Cook, of South Helper. All gave very favorable reports of the wards over whom they preside, organizations and associations doing well, especially the Young Men's and Young Women's Societies. President John W. Hinckley reported the Stake. Speaking of the labor of himself and counsellors among the people, he said from his own knowledge he believed the bishops had given true reports.

President Q. Cannon spoke for a few minutes on the influence of the Holy Spirit and His work in the affairs of God.

Saturday, 2 p.m.—After the usual exercises Elder John W. Hinckley spoke on the subject of "The Work of God and the Kingdom of Heaven."

President Gen. Q. Cannon addressed the congregation, giving timely counsel and instructions to his brethren, pointing out the path that they must pursue to be successful in their labors that we may expect His blessing if we yield to the temptations of Satan.

Elder A. H. Cannon spoke against the spirit of faultfinding and speaking against the Lord's anointed, fighting against the priesthood, would kill us.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.

Sunday, 10 a.m.—In addition to the stake and local authorities we were blessed with the presence of Elders F. D. Hinckley, H. J. Grant, J. W. Taylor and A. H. Cannon, of the Council of the Twelve, and the General Authorities of the Council of Seventy. Elder George Reynolds, H. J. Grant and J. W. Taylor addressed the saints during the morning service, speaking on the worth of our mission, how to guard against the world, including, Wm. of Wisdom, etc. They urged the Saints to uphold the bands of the presiding priesthood and listen to the counsel they might give.

Sunday, 2 p.m.—After the opening exercises and the administration of the sacrament, the conference adjourned until the next day, when the general assembly made their annual meeting.

Elder A. H. Hinckley, of Provo, Carson county, who has recently returned from a mission to Great Britain, made a pleasant call on the Saints yesterday, before leaving for his home in the evening.